

Gruppo Santelli
Foreign Rights Catalogue

GRUPPO
SANTELLI

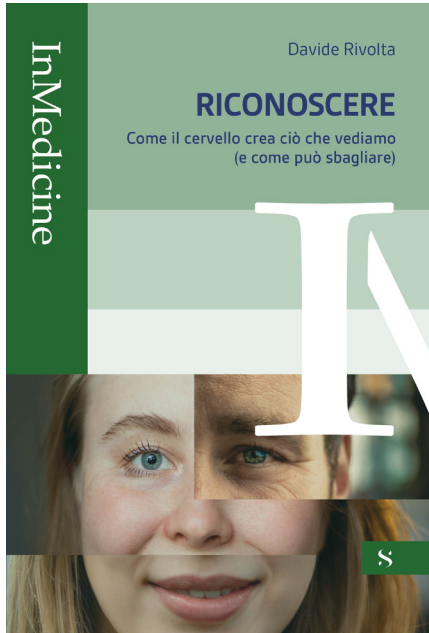

In this original journey through human history, diseases, epidemics, disorders, and syndromes take center stage, revealing themselves as powerful forces capable of shaping civilizations, altering the outcomes of wars, and even influencing the fates of emperors.

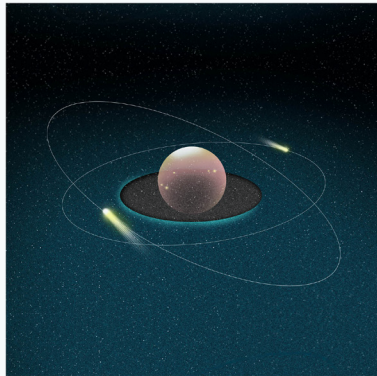

A biotechnologist and triathlete who has been facing the challenge of type 1 diabetes since the age of three shares dietary strategies which she uses to balance intense sports activities with managing glycemic peaks. The author will donate a portion of the royalties derived from the sale of this book to FID (Fondazione Italiana Diabete).

The process of biological aging is a complex, multifactorial process. If we study aging as a biological array of processes which leads to diseases of old age, as scientists we will study therapies and strategies to act on these process and treating aging as a complex disease.

In the book, psychological and neuroscientific aspects of normal and pathological face recognition are discussed, both in terms of the inability to recognize faces and, at the opposite extreme, individuals who never forget a face—the so-called super-recognizers. What happens when a person is called upon to identify a perpetrator?

Amabile Aquino

I PILASTRI OSCURI DELL'UNIVERSO

Viaggio alla scoperta del micro e macrocosmo

ACCADEMIA
SANTELLI

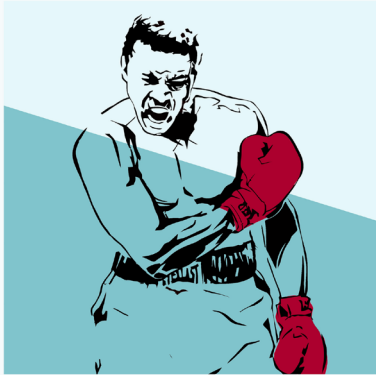

A fascinating and profound journey through the most important discoveries in physics, skillfully intertwining the laws of the Macrocosm and the Microcosm, and exploring the surprising similarities between atomic-level and cosmic phenomena.

Physicists and philosophers have hypothesized the birth of the universe starting from the so-called “quantum vacuum”. But it is not enough. In this volume we demonstrate how a universe can spontaneously create itself from nothing.

This book offers a clear and engaging introduction to complex systems and chaos theory, helping readers make sense of the everyday events that so often surprise us, and sometimes even determine our survival.

Federico Ghitti

SPORTPOLITIK

Temi di storia del Novecento tra sport e politica

ACCADEMIA
SANTELLI

A reconstruction of the most significant events of the twentieth century through the history of sport. The sporting events that punctuate the grand narrative of the twentieth century become powerful symbols of the political and economic phenomena of the modern era.

The essay explores the meaning of designing, focusing on the designer's psychology. Design stems from personal inquiry but engages with utility, beauty, and social purpose, providing theoretical tools to create projects with significance.

The book explores romantic relationships as encounters between four inner figures: Anima and Animus. Through symbolic storytelling, it examines love, partner choice, and gender-based violence, suggesting self-work as a path to prevention.

Agorà Santelli - nonfiction

MARIO DRAGHI
HOPE IS NOT A STRATEGY

Biography of the man, the economist

Cristina La Bella

Translated by Andrea Monaci

AGORÀ
SANTELLI

The book explores not only Draghi's remarkable career as Italy's Prime Minister, but also the intimate story of the boy who lost his parents and dreamed of becoming a basketball player, the admission to MIT in Boston, and the doctoral student who worked up to 18 hours a day to support both himself and his family.

Cristina La Bella - Mario Draghi. Hope is not a strategy

The book presents the current crisis as a historical transition: not a catastrophe, but the end of a paradigm based on materialism and individualism, moving toward a model centered on integration, collaboration, and shared well-being.

Agorà Santelli - nonfiction

The book proposes a new phase of global constitutionalism: the Earth Federation and a worldwide Constitution to overcome nationalism and ensure equality among peoples and cultural diversity.

Giuseppe Deiana - Reclaiming the Future. Time for a Global Constitution.

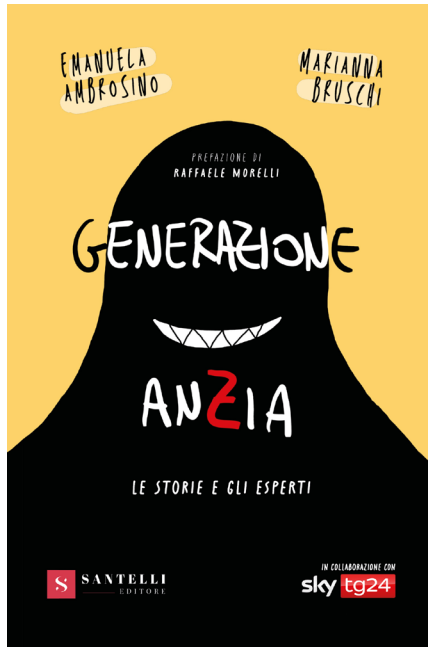

A historical thriller on the mysterious Voynich manuscript: amid secret texts, the CIA, Jesuits, and centuries of intrigue, the investigation becomes an existential quest about fate and the possibility of changing it.

A family saga set in 19th-century Sardinia: Giovanni Antonio Sanna's rise and the Montevecchio mine intertwine with the fates of his wife and daughters, amid the timeless struggle between wealth, love, and happiness.

A practical guide for wedding professionals on new media: digital marketing strategies, social media and Reels, guided exercises, downloadable content, and exclusive data to optimize online presence and grow in the industry.

“Gen anZiety” explores the mental health crisis among adolescents, combining data, firsthand testimonies, and expert insights to help young people and families understand and manage anxiety, depression, and self-harm.

Tell me how - guide

Messy home, kids, and work? In 7 days, with a simple method, checklists, and daily challenges, this book helps restore balance and calm, turning domestic chaos into functional, peaceful spaces.

Alicia Brown - TELL ME HOW. Tidy up your house in 7 days when you have kids (and you always are working)

Narrativa Santelli - fiction

Marco, indecisive and half-hearted in everything, hides his porn industry job from Maria. Rising as a partner at Capriccio Production, he loses everything when the truth comes out. Amid failure and regret, he struggles to save a future where love and hope endure.

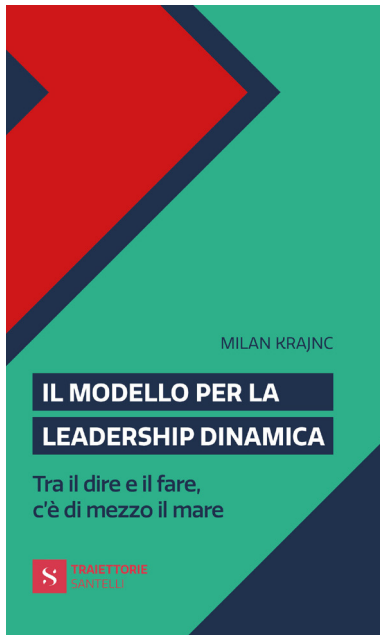

Mirko Zullo - If life gives you lemons

Santelli Editore - fiction, nonfiction

Streams of thought and emotional currents connect the reader to the life, events, and inner world of an Italian Stuka pilot in World War II. A visionary journey through night skies, values, and reflections, exploring timeless human shadows amid the relentless drive to reach every horizon.

Ivano Ceribelli - The last flight

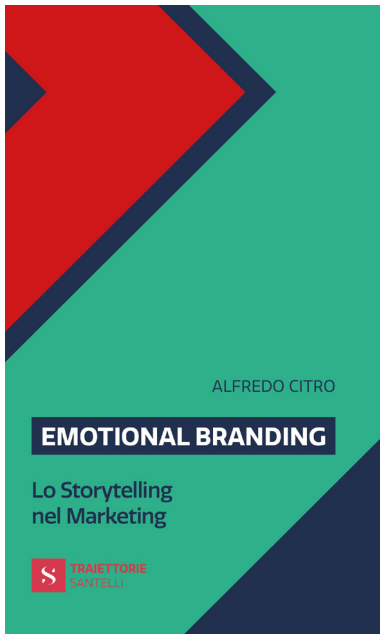

A business paradigm for a company's management, organization, and communication strategies, designed to prevent the personalities of those who actively shape the business from influencing it. Milan Krajnc has been nominated for the Economy Nobel in 2021.

A green business story marked by ups and downs, showing how quickly an enterprise can be built, undone, and rebuilt. Alessia Bertolotto traces the family company Marcopolo's journey in biogas, revealing a tale of sacrifices, mistakes, intrigues, and successes.

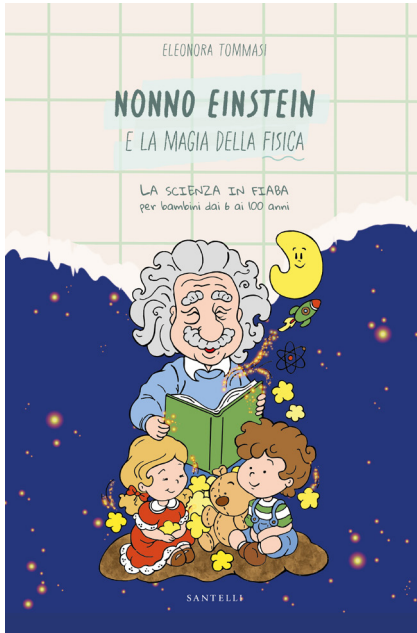

Why “Once Upon a Time Marketing”? Because today, anyone seeking the essence of marketing finds it paired with countless labels: contagious, emotional, guerrilla, or neuro-marketing. This book returns to marketing’s roots, offering a clear, simple understanding of the discipline beyond the digital era.

This concise manual covers the key theories of corporate storytelling and Emotional Branding, showing how well-crafted narratives create relatable brand worlds. Using examples like Intesa Sanpaolo’s Sharing Ideas campaign, it illustrates how storytelling and brand identity shape behavior, highlighting pathy and emotion as storytelling’s core pillars.

For Kids and Teens

The funny and brilliant Grandpa Einstein takes us on a journey filled with unveiled mysteries, amazing adventures, and magical formulas... where physics hides behind every corner!

Eleonora Tommasi - Granpa Einstein and the Magic of Physics

For Kids and Teens

Pippo and Pippi are twin polar bears: tender, fluffy, inseparable and... indistinguishable! But when Pippi, who has decided to become an astronaut, returns home after an incredible journey into space, his brother Pippo will find him changed: what happened to him?

Eleonora Tommasi - Two VERY special twins

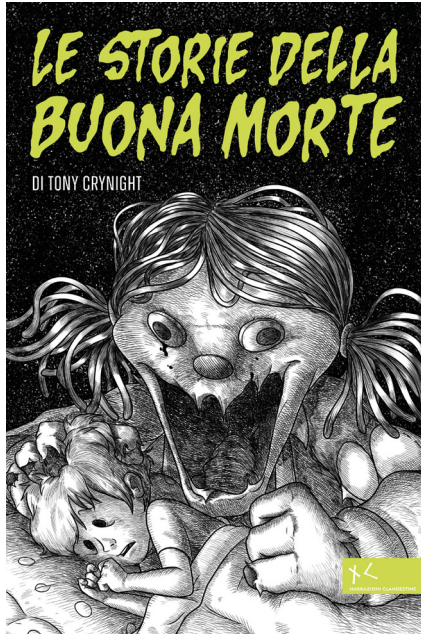

For Kids and Teens

Filiberto is a kitten who does a very important job: that of the Policecat! He always comes to the aid of the inhabitants of Pawland and is committed to enforcing the laws. One day, an elderly mouse asks him to find the cheese that was stolen from her... and the policecat immediately launches an investigation!

Elisa Sordi - Filiberto the policecat ...
and the stolen cheese

For Kids and Teens

A sweet little girl willing to do anything to get what she wants, a beaver hopelessly in love with a beautiful maiden, a rag doll abandoned by its young owner. Three blood-soaked stories as gentle as the lightest fairy tales and as macabre as the most disturbing nightmares.

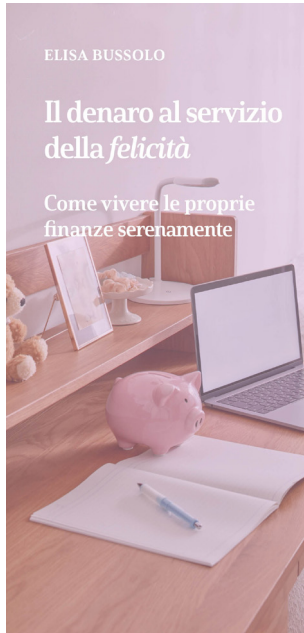

Tony Crynight - Good-nightmers tales

SUNDARTA

Words have the power to build worlds or to destroy them; real strength lies in our choice to use them wisely.” Language is never neutral: it shapes relationships, performance, and people’s well-being. It can create connection or distance, motivate or demotivate. Begin the change: with the right words, you can build a happier workplace.

SUNDARTA

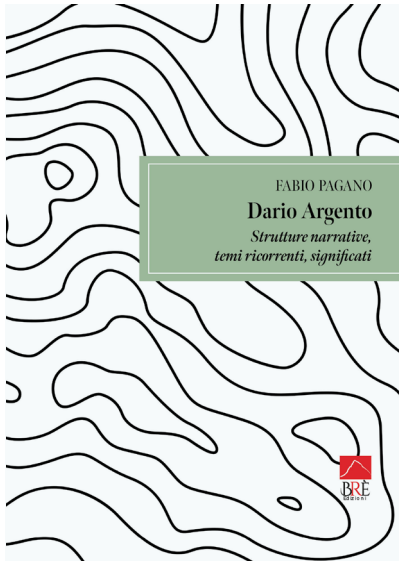

Managing your finances for a happy life means developing a healthy relationship with money and learning to put your economic resources at the service of your goals and of your personal, family, and professional projects.

An essay that examines the obstacles to freedom in contemporary Western societies, exploring their historical, economic, technological, and psychological roots. Through an analysis that ranges from the individual to the global level, the book offers an innovative and multidisciplinary approach.

“Haiku Innovation” is a narrative compass blending Eastern philosophy, mythology, storytelling, and business strategy. In 17 blocks, from Ma and Kintsugi to startup Death Valleys, it guides innovators, showing that true innovation requires imagination and bold action.

A deep essay on Dario Argento's cinematic universe, analyzing narrative structures, recurring themes, and hidden meanings. With film classifications and comparisons to Bava and Hitchcock, it offers cinema lovers and scholars a guide to the director's dark, fascinating horror world, enriched by sociological and philosophical insights.

A whole different story.

www.grupposantelli.it marketing@grupposantelli.it